

Archbishop Richard Smith's Full Dinner Address 2019

"The missionaries before us would have set their gaze upon a vast and undeveloped landscape, with little for resources other than what they were able to bring with them. Yet, even though in one sense they had nothing, in another they had everything," Archbishop Smith said.

The inaugural Archbishop's Dinner was held Oct. 4 at the Edmonton Convention Centre. It was an opportunity to celebrate and honour the breadth and depth of the Catholic community in the Edmonton Archdiocese. More than 1,100 attended the sold-out event.
