

Faith lessons from losing – and finding – man’s best friend

In his latest vlog, Steven Defer looks at the expression “a dog is a man’s best friend” and tells a story that illustrates his thoughts on how friendship plays out in our spiritual lives. Defer is the coordinator of the Office of Life and Family for the Archdiocese of Edmonton.