

How to celebrate Easter amid pandemic

These are extraordinary times. The COVID-19 pandemic is keeping the faithful from celebrating Easter in their churches. In this video and a letter, Edmonton Archbishop Richard Smith offers his thoughts on how to celebrate the Church's most solemn liturgical time of the year even if we can't be physically present in the pews.