

Left Footers: Father Marc Cramer shares his journey from Mormon missionary to Catholic priest

In this episode of Left Footers, Father Marc Cramer – the vocations director for the Archdiocese of Edmonton – shares his faith journey from Catholicism to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and then back again to Catholicism, and eventually to answering the call to the priesthood.