

Find a livestream Mass during COVID-19 restrictions

These are the masses which will be available online within the Catholic Archdiocese of Edmonton during the current COVID-19 preventive measures.

No congregation will be allowed at these masses, and only the celebrant will communicate (or receive Holy Communion).

Most of these livestreams will be posted on Facebook, however no Facebook account is needed to view the videos.

SUNDAY MASS

Saturday Vigil

5 p.m. – St. Thomas More Parish in Edmonton will be livestreaming on their Facebook page here, in which it will be made available on their website here.

6:30 p.m. – Father Matthew Hysell will be livestreaming the Saturday Vigil Mass (for Sunday) in American Sign Language for the Deaf community across Canada. It will be on the International Catholic Deaf Association – Canadian Chapter Facebook page here.

Sunday

9:30 a.m. – St. John Bosco Parish in Edmonton is livestreaming Sunday Mass on their Facebook page here.

9:30 a.m. – Sacred Heart Church of the First Peoples is livestreaming Sunday Mass on their Facebook page here.

10:00 a.m. – Our Lady of the Angels in Fort Saskatchewan is livestreaming Sunday Mass through their Facebook page here, and A Beggar's Heart here.

10:30 a.m. – St. Joseph's Basilica is livestreaming Sunday Mass with Archbishop Richard Smith on the Archdiocese of Edmonton Facebook page here.

11:00 a.m. – Our Lady of Guadalupe in Edmonton is livestreaming Sunday Mass in Spanish on this non-public YouTube link here.

11:30 a.m. – St. Anthony Parish in Lloydminster is livestreaming Sunday Mass on their Facebook page here.

Various times – Holy Rosary Polish Parish has a 24-hour feed of their altar. Their masses continue at regular times and will be streamed on their website here.

7:00 p.m. Adoration / 8:15 p.m. Mass – Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Sherwood Park is livestreaming Sunday Mass on their Facebook page here.

DURING THE WEEK

9:00 a.m. – St. John Bosco Parish in Edmonton is livestreaming daily Mass on their Facebook page here.

9:00 a.m. – Sacred Heart Church of the First Peoples is livestreaming daily Mass on their Facebook page here.

Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. – Father Matthew Hysell is livestreaming Mass in American Sign Language for the Deaf community across Canada. It will be on the International Catholic Deaf Association – Canadian Chapter Facebook page here.

Various times – Holy Rosary Polish Parish has a 24-hour feed of their altar. Their masses continue at regular times and will be streamed on their website here.

OTHER RESOURCES

Information regarding the Church response to COVID-19 preventive measures are updated based on the current situation. For the latest updates, visit the website for the archdiocese here.

Archbishop Smith posts a weekly blog, The Reason For Our Hope, on Grandin Media's website here.

Fr. Kris Schmidt posts his homilies weekly as a podcast. The podcast, along with his Vital Word Vlogs, are available on A Beggar's Heart Facebook page here.